Stone Circle Forest Land

This massive 2+ hectare plot offers plenty of nature, privacy, and central location with both Niseko Village and Annupuri Ski resorts just a 5 minute drive away. The land has a very gentle slope to the south, offering development opportunity of a couple of homes, without blocking one another's views. With plenty of trees on the site as well, a couple of large villas could be built while protecting the tranquility of the forest, as well as one another's privacy. Contact us today to discuss development possibilities, or the potential to purchase just the north or south side half of this land.
